Pitopito kōrero | Notes

² International students who study at an Aotearoa New Zealand secondary school and who expect to gain university entrance via NCEA, IB, or CIE do not need to apply for admission. However, they do need to apply to enrol. Go to <http://www.canterbury.ac.nz/enrol/> for information on how to enrol. An application for admission to the University that is made prior to enrolment at the UC International College (UCIC) is valid.
